✅ Best balance of cost & time:

- From SFO or OAK → BART Yellow Line directly to Concord.
- From SJC → driving/rideshare is usually much faster than transit.

SFO → Concord

- Fastest: Rideshare/taxi (≈45–75 min depending on traffic).
- Cheapest (and solid overall): BART Yellow Line (Antioch) directly from SFO → Concord. ~1 hr 10–20 min. You can now tap in with a contactless credit/debit card or mobile wallet—no Clipper required. Fare is roughly low-teens.

OAK → Concord

- Fastest: Rideshare/taxi (≈40–60 min).
- Cheapest (and easy): BART to OAK people-mover (≈9 min) to Coliseum, then Yellow Line (Antioch) → Concord. Typical travel time ~1 hr 10–20 min; fare roughly low-teens.

SJC → Concord

- Fastest: Rideshare/taxi (≈1 hr 15–1 hr 45).
- Cheapest (transit): VTA Route 60 from SJC → Milpitas BART (about every 20 min; ~$3), then BART (Milpitas → transfer at MacArthur → Yellow Line → Concord). Total ~2–2.5 hrs; total fare typically around low-to-mid teens.
- Alternate transit (usually longer & pricier): Caltrain SJC area → Millbrae, transfer to BART Yellow Line → Concord. Useful if you're already near Caltrain; fares add up.

Tips

- On BART, you can Tap-and-Ride with a contactless card/phone; discounts (youth/low-income/senior) still require Clipper.

- For exact fares for your time of day, use BART's Fare Calculator / Trip Planner (they'll reflect recent fare adjustments).
