PCDWBA/PCDBA would like to announce that the Gold Coast Hotel & Casino's bowling alley can be found within the hotel on the second floor. We, PCDWBA and PCDBA, as this year's host, want to take the time to give all the PCDBA/PCDWBA bowlers and fans a very warm welcome to Las Vegas! For those that may be interested in Masters/Queens/Senior Masters and Senior Queens, there is a limited number of walk-ins we can accept. If you want to add this event, please sign up on Tuesday BEFORE the Singles/Doubles event, it will be the cost of the event plus a $5 walk-in fee. We cannot wait to see you all! The weather will be hot! Expect temperatures to be in the triple digits – the average temperature in Las Vegas in June is 102° F but can go up to 110° F and the low is about 75° F so it will hot during the day and warm at night, although most of us will be indoors – be sure to bring a light jacket/sweater if you tend to get cold easily – the interior of the hotel and bowling alley will be air-conditioned!

Message from Tournament Director Bert Enos

I sure can't wait to see all of you in Las Vegas in less than two weeks. I want to share with you about the elevator to the bowling center. There are two elevators to the bowling center, one is by the Bingo area. You will also find the other elevator by the main casino floor.

If you want to bowl Seniors Masters, you will need to sign up before the Single and Doubles events start on Tuesday. Some of you will need to see me either on Sunday or Monday to sign the secretary verification form for average purposes. If you haven't signed that form, we will issue you a 220 average. We hope to find three more women bowlers to make it 22 teams. We are looking for women who can bowl just the team event only. If you happen to know women who may be interested in bowling just the team event only, please let me know.

The bowling center has 70 lanes, and we will use the "house shot" oil pattern at 41 feet. We will use lanes 1-52 on Tuesday, lanes 1-62 on Wednesday, and lanes 1-70 on Thursday.

Registration:

Bowlers need to meet in the Bowling Center or in the Lobby to sign waivers and receive wristbands. Those who bought the Banquet Fan Combo may be there anytime before Thursday, to pick up their wristbands.

Bowling House Information:

Gold Coast Hotel & Casino Bowling Center
4000 W. Flamingo Road
Las Vegas, NV 89103

General Meeting:

There will be no General Meeting this year.

Banquet:

Will be held at 6 PM on Thursday evening. Bowling awards will be given out during the Banquet as well as Hall of Fame, a Memorial PowerPoint, the raffle drawing and a spectacular Mistress of Ceremonies!

Restaurants:

There are plenty of places to eat nearby. We suggest you use either Google Maps or Yelp to help you decide where to eat! ☺

Wishing you a lot of Strikes and Spares all weekend,

PCDBA/PCDWBA Officers

Tim Estes, Vice President
